Parade Brought Much Interest

Many individuals and organizations took time to create entries for the children's parade.

The parade was held on Sunday morning, and was a great success. The children's parade was particularly popular, with many children and adults watching.

Three Lose Lives in Carnival's Explosion Here Last Sunday

WHERE FATAL BLAST OCCURRED

Police Chief Ray Burton and others view the wreckage at the carnival grounds following Sunday's death blast. This central area was an inferno as the bludge was swept from the trailer at left across the open space to complete the explosion of right, trapping the people between. The carnival was set up on the lot just west of the city hall, which can be seen at right edge of picture.

Palmer Family Is Stricken by Flames

The carnival grounds here Sunday were swept by searing flames when a bludge was tossed into a popcorn stand, killing a woman and two boys, critically burning others. The dead included two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Palmer of Odessa, Robert, 2, and Jeff, 3; and the operator of the stand, Mrs. Norma Patricia Allen Kelly, 31, 1018 1/2th Street SW, Seattle, widowed mother of four children. She was killed instantly.

Remored to DuPonts hospital after emergency care here were Mrs. Palmer, 36, and another son, Billy, 6. Mrs. Palmer on the official list, Billy fatally Mrs. Claire Norton of Seattle, good condition, her daughter, Kathy, 4, critical; Mrs. Evelyn Stevens, Puyallup, good condition; her daughter, Deborah, 19, fatally dead; from Harrison, critical, and Glenn Dry, 36, St. Louis, a carnival worker, critical.

The carnival, King's Shows, was here for its second year at the Odessa grounds. It was getting underway for a Sunday afternoon play when the explosion occurred. The stand, three feet long and a foot in diameter, burst from top to bottom, and a flame shower, burst fire into two other tent covered concession stands, another trailer, concession and the trailer office.

Charles Skruppe, who happened to be looking that way from a nearby building, saw the flash, but he had never seen such a flash before, he said.

The explosion was caused by the explosion of a bludge, which was tossed into a popcorn stand.

Newspaper articles on the explosion

Burn Victims Are Improved

An early week report on the injured from last week's bottled gas explosion here, that claimed three lives, indicates improvements.

Gale Palmer reported Wednesday morning that Mrs. Palmer was showing improvement, although she had bad days earlier this week. She will be hospitalized for an estimated two months.

Kathy Morton, 4, Portland, was taken off the critical list last Thursday.

Still listed as critical were Mrs. Elizabeth Zwick, 56, Hartline, and Glen Dry, 26, St. Louis.

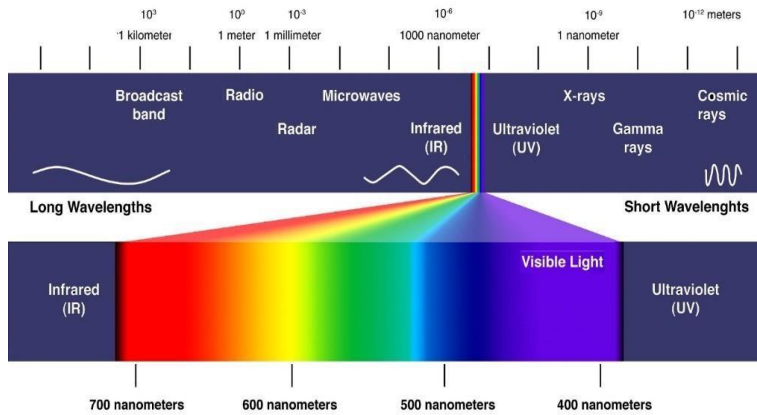

Listed in satisfactory condition was Mrs. Evelyn Stevens, 38, Puyallup, and her daughter, Jahan, 10, was considered in fair condition.

In good condition were Mrs. Clair Motron, 26, Portland, and Bill Palmer, 4, Odessa.
